Didn't Even Apologize.

Two officers of the New York Volunteers drove furiously down Alakea street at about 12:05 yesterday afternoon. A young man happened to ride fast on King street on the way to his lunch. The knee of the horse struck the front wheel of the bicycle and damaged it badly, notwithstanding the fact that the young man turned as quickly as possible to avoid the danger. The officers never even stopped to offer an apology but drove off down the street.
